

On the Move

April 25

AWARDS and RECOGNITION

Larry Wold, president of TD Bank Maine, will be honored as this year's recipient of the Good Shepherd Food Bank's JoAnn Pike Humanitarian Award at the award dinner on May 17.

Angie Helton, president of Northeast Media Associates, has been awarded the Member Volunteer of the Year award by the Greater Portland Convention and Visitors Bureau. The award recognizes her work in marketing Greater Portland and the Casco Bay region.

Moody's Collision Center has been awarded the 2009 Maine Auto Body Facility of the Year Award.

Susan MacKay of Zeomatrix has been named the 2010 Women in Technological Entrepreneurship Award winner by the Maine Center for Enterprise Development. The $400 financial award is made possible from proceeds of the Victoria Hilliard Donovan Fund and recognizes women entrepreneurs who are developing technology-based products through the center's programs.

At the 30th Maine International Trade Day: Fluid Imaging Technologies of Yarmouth was recognized as 2010 Exporter of the Year for its FlowCam product. Sprague Energy Corp., with facilities in South Portland and Searsport, was recognized as the 2010 Service Provider of the Year. Lighthouse Imaging Corp. of Portland was recognized as the 2010 International Innovator of the Year for being the leading provider of optical engineering and design services for the medical device industry.

Ruth Greene, vice president of planning and forecasting at UNUM, was the recipient of the 2010 President's Award at the 30th Maine International Trade Day. She was honored for her service as MITC's board chair.

Michael Bailey of Searsmont, a teacher at Belfast Area High School, received the 2010 Keisai Koho Center Educator Fellowship to travel and study in Japan this summer.