

On the Move

July 6

GENERAL

Philip Conkling has been appointed by President Obama to serve as an alternate member on the Roosevelt Campobello International Park Commission. Since 1983, in his role as president and founder of the Island Institute, Conkling has provided strategic, creative and developmental leadership for several organizations and has visited more than 1,000 Maine islands.

The Maine International Trade Center has announced the election of the following members to its board: Timothy Harper of Unum, Kathleen Robinson of L.L. Bean and Laurenz Schmidt of Cape Elizabeth.

Thomas Lea of Maine Bank & Trust, Anne Littlefield of Dead River Properties, Drew Sigfridson of CB Richard Ellis/The Boulos Co., William Shanahan of the Northern New England Housing Investment Fund, James Otis of Otis/Atwell, Dennis Keeler of Pierce Atwood LLP and Paul Peck of Drummond & Drummond have been elected to the Maine Real Estate & Development Association's board of directors for 2010-2011.

Preble Street has elected the following officers: Maurice A. Selinger III, president; Renee Schwalberg, vice president; Ann Houser, secretary; and Charlie Roscoe, treasurer. Terry Sutton and Michelle Goldman have been appointed to three-year terms on the board.

James Conlon, president of Bangor Savings Bank, has been elected chairman of the Maine Association of Community Banks. At the annual meeting, it was also voted to change the organization's name to the Maine Bankers Association, effective July 1.

Karen Stanley has been elected chairwoman of the Camden National Corp.'s board of directors. Rendle Jones, chairman of the board of directors since 1998, will remain on the board until he reaches 70 years old, the mandatory age for retirement.